Learning to Live with God

Over the last few years, it feels like our world and our lives have changed significantly. We have tried to learn how to live with a pandemic, selfishness, hatred, and violence (all of which seem to be never-ending). The world can feel like a very unsafe place. For some of us, it feels like we must learn how to live with God in a whole new way as the world shifts and turns around us.

Moses is someone who seems to have lived under some similar (yet very different) circumstances. In his life, the world changed drastically and became a very uncertain and unsafe place for him. Moses is someone who has a broken identity. He sees himself as an alien, as someone who does not belong. Someone who has been abandoned by both of his families - resulting in an inner turmoil that leads him to make some horrible decisions that result in Moses becoming a murderer. Each encounter that we witness Moses' experience with God brings the reality of healing and a new identity deeper into Moses' life. Along the way, Moses learns;

1. To trust God.
2. To not allow the rejection of others to form who he is.
3. That his core identity is based not on Moses' actions but on God's presence with him. Moses asks God "who am I?" God responds, "You are the one whom I am with!"
4. That God's power does indeed flow through Moses. That power is displayed for others to see and experience God.

Moses also realizes that his part in this process is to not hold back. He cannot partially live with God. Moses needs to be committed to allowing God's presence and their relationship into every corner of Moses' life. This is a hard thing for Moses to do. His own brokenness, rejection, and sinful choices throughout his life have taught Moses to always be in control. Always be in charge. Always have a way out. So, Moses holds back. He partially follows God and is casually (convenient) in his choices of what instructions to obey and not obey. This gets Moses into trouble. Yet the trusting in God, living a life that is different from this world, and boldly speaking unpopular truths (the things Moses fears most) are the very things he desperately needs to do to break the unhealthy cycle of hurtful choices that Moses has grown accustomed to making.

Sound familiar? Many of us struggle in the very same way. We fear the actions that living with God bring into our lives, we hate making sacrifices, we detest uncomfortableness, and we - like Moses - transpose those feelings onto God. We start to think that it is God who has broken us, God whom we should cower in fear from, and most importantly that God (and God's people) are the very people we should stay clear off. The temptation to runaway is great. Doing so is a tragedy, because if we do give in to these feelings, we separate ourselves further from the love of God. The very thing we need for healing.

Yes, learning to live with God does entail letting go of who we are, relying upon the promise that the new person God forms in us is far better off than the one we are saying goodbye to. We are thankful that God is patient with us. Yet the very presence of God in our lives calls us to constantly allow God to transform each and every area of our lives.

AlpineFest is Sunday, August 21st from 1—4 PM! Come and enjoy music, games, food, a car show, a train for the kids and some great fellowship. This event is a long time favorite for our Alpine family and friends. Invite your neighbors and friends to attend.

Wednesday Morning Bible Study has resumed after a long hiatus. We are meeting every Wednesday at 10 AM. All are welcome to attend!

We continue our Summer Worship Series “The Hero of the Bible” through the month of August. Each week we will discuss a story from the unsung heroes of the Bible who are led by the Hero of the Bible, God. See how God leads them, like he leads us everyday.

Would you like to become a member of Alpine? We would love to have you. Recently the Stewardship/Finance Committee sent out 6 month statements and 53/54 week envelopes. Please make it a point to put your name and envelope # on the blue envelope so that you can receive proper financial credit for your giving. We have received a couple envelopes with cash and no name. We thank you for your support of Alpine Lutheran Church and its ministries. (Finance Committee)

Calling all musicians or music lovers! Come and join us this fall as we praise the Lord with music. Alpine offers a Bell Choir, Chancel Choir, and Paise Band. All are welcome to join us. Choirs meet Tuesday evenings; Praise band is TBD.

Keep Alpine Updated: With current HIPAA laws, the church is not informed when you are hospitalized. Please have a friend or family member notify the church directly. We want to keep in contact with you especially when you are in need of support.

Our School year is just about to begin and just a couple Sundays ago we made a big announcement for Alpine Academy. We are now on the west side of Rockford with a new campus, Alpine Academy: Resurrection Campus. We are looking forward to working with Resurrection Lutheran Church in building this new part of Alpine Academy. Please pray for us as we prepare to begin a new year with new challenges. We know that God is with us as we take on this new adventure.

With our new school year coming up we look forward to welcoming our students back into the school. We look forward to being back in worship services with our students beginning in September. Our staff returns on August 8th to begin to prepare and plan for a successful 25th School Year at Alpine!

Thank you to everyone who has been volunteering with us at the Academy this summer. I am still looking for a few more volunteers to join us and help man our booth for Alpine Academy and Alpine Lutheran Church at the Boone County Fair. If you are able and interested in taking a shift please contact me at 815.494.3002.

Thank you to all of our Alpine Family for your continued support and prayers!
